THE LAND OF KATMAI TOUR

Included is round trip flights between Anchorage and Brooks Lodge, two nights lodging, the "Valley of 10,000 Smokes" Natural History Tour, and all taxes. Meals are not included.
Brooks Lodge is open June 1 - September 18 each year.

DAY 1: Fly from Anchorage to King Salmon, or Kulik Lodge, where you will transfer to a seaplane for the short scenic flight to Brooks Lodge. The afternoon is yours to use as you wish. You may want to wet a line or join the afternoon nature walk led by a National Park Service naturalist. There are slide shows, films, lectures, sunsets and a bar for evening enjoyment.

DAY 2: Meet the tour at the lower viewing platform at 8:30am for the "Valley of 10,000 Smokes" Natural History Tour. During the full-day tour you will have the opportunity to walk upon the ash and pumice moonscape of the "Valley of 10,000 Smokes" (see page 5). Lunch is included on the tour.

DAY 3: Spend your last few hours in Katmai pursuing your own interests. Take a last walk to Brooks Falls for a few last photos, rent a canoe or kayak, or visit the "Trading Post" where souvenirs and post cards may be purchased. All too soon it's time to say your good-byes and head back to Anchorage.

"THE VALLEY OF 10,000 SMOKES"

In Katmai is located the site of one of the most violent volcanic eruptions in recorded history. Novarupta Volcano exploded in June 1912 with blasts of hot wind and gas which spewed enormous quantities of hot, glowing pumice and ash over the surrounding terrain, destroying all living things and burying more than 40 square miles of lush green valley under deposits to depths of 700 feet. In 1915 the National Geographic Society began exploration of the area under the direction of Dr. Robert Griggs, who named it "The Valley of 10,000 Smokes".

"THE VALLEY OF 10,000 SMOKES" NATURAL HISTORY TOUR

The guided bus tour to the "Valley of 10,000 Smokes" departs daily. The tour meets at the lower viewing platform at 8:30am each morning and returns at 4:00pm. Upon arrival at Overlook Cabin you will have an awe-inspiring view of the "Valley". Your National Park Service guide will lead a walk down to the valley floor. During this full day tour you will have the opportunity to view a variety of wildlife and walk upon the ash and pumice moonscape of the "Valley of 10,000 Smokes". Reservations are recommended.

$96.00 per person with sack lunch
$88.00 per person without lunch

BEAR VIEWING DAYTRIPS

Brooks Lodge overlooks the world famous Brooks River in the heart of Katmai National Park. The lodge, originally conceived as a fishing camp, has been in operation since 1950 and has gained a worldwide reputation, attracting visitors from all continents. Katmai National Park boasts the largest population of protected brown bears in the world. During the summer sockeye salmon runs, Katmai's Brooks River is the focus of bears feeding in the park, providing visitors with unparalleled views of Alaskan brown bears in their natural habitat.

Take a 75 minute flight from Anchorage to King Salmon, or Kulik Lodge. A short shuttle ride will transfer you to your next flight - a scenic 25 minute float plane ride to Brooks Lodge!

Upon arrival at Brooks Lodge, you will be given a brief bear orientation by a park ranger to learn how to safely conduct yourself while exploring in bear country. You will have the opportunity to visit the World Famous Brooks Falls where brown bears feed and the friendly National Park Service rangers will answer all of your questions about this incredible park.

The Katmai National Park one-day tour includes round trip air transportation from Anchorage to Brooks Lodge (Brooks Camp) for your unguided adventure in Katmai (Brooks Falls). A buffet style lunch is included at Brooks Lodge, as well as 10% off canoe, kayak and fishing gear rentals, 10% off guide services, and 10% off all clothing items in the Katmai Trading Post at Brooks Lodge. The "Valley of 10,000 Smokes" Natural History Tour is not available on the one-day tour, but you may want to inquire about flightseeing tours offered through the Brooks Lodge office upon arrival (see page 4 for details).

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When are the salmon running? Salmon runs vary from year to year and it is not possible to predict them with absolute accuracy. Most years a large run of sockeye (red) salmon will begin to enter the Brooks River during the middle of June. This run continues through July and the salmon usually begin to spawn in the Brooks River in early August. The spawn continues throughout August and peaks again during September.

When is the peak time to view bears at Brooks River? The bear viewing opportunities vary throughout the season and also from year to year, mostly due to differences in salmon runs (see salmon run FAQ). While it is common to see bears almost any time during the summer at Brooks, especially if salmon are present, the possibility also exists that you may not. The National Park Service suggests that the peak times are July and September on Brooks River.

Can I drive to Brooks Lodge? Driving to Brooks Lodge is not possible. Like most of Alaska, there are no roads to our area and we are accessible by air only.

How long does it take to get there? The flight from Anchorage to either King Salmon or Kulik Lodge is approximately 75 minutes. The floatplane to Brooks Lodge is approximately 25 minutes.

What are the rooms like at Brooks Lodge? The sixteen rooms at Brooks Lodge are all alike on the inside. They each have four twin sized bunk beds – two upper and two lower beds. Each heated room has a private shower and restroom facility. Some rooms are free standing and some are attached side by side. Brooks Lodge does not take any room requests. The individual cabins go to the parties who booked first. Laundry facilities not available.

Can I pay for meals in advance? Yes. When you make your reservation, you may specify that you would like to prepay all or part of your meals with your package. Any amount may be paid in advance and you will be given a credit voucher in the amount you prepaid which can be used not only for meals, but also for any souvenirs or tours you purchase while at the lodge. Meals are included at Kulik Lodge and Grosvenor Lodge.

Can I bring food into my room? No food or drinks of any kind are allowed in the rooms at Brooks Lodge because of the chance of being visited by a bear.

How many nights can I stay at Brooks? If any one night is in July, there is a three night maximum stay. There is no limit to stays in June, August or September.

Can I hike on my own in the Brooks area? Yes, there are hiking trails in the park. Maps are available at the NPS Visitor Center next to the lodge.

Are there a lot of bugs? There can be, depending on how wet or dry it has been. You want a good insect repellent with a high DEET concentration for it to be effective. Thick socks will help keep the bugs off while walking through the brush and head nets are available at the Trading Post.

How far away are the platforms for wildlife viewing? There are three viewing platforms on the Brooks River, all within walking distance from the lodge. They range from 300 yards to one mile from the main lodge.

What is the weather like in Katmai? The weather in Katmai is very unpredictable. Temperatures can range between 45 and 70 degrees and even lower in September. Wind and rain are common so bring layers that can be added to or taken away as the weather dictates.
